THE VENUE

Barcelona is a city whose personality bursts at every natural seam. The capital of Catalonia, one of Spain's 17 autonomous communities, Barcelona is also known as the country's most progressive city, always on the cutting-edge of European art, fashion and cuisine. What's more, its energy is unparalleled, with hundreds of bars, restaurants, cafes and clubs... so be prepared to party 'til dawn and hit the streets with the rest of the city's nearly 2 million inhabitants. But Barcelona is also the city of Picasso and Miro. It's also a home for gorgeous beaches, serene parks and gardens, uniquely preserved medieval historic quarter Barri Gotic, fine museums and elegant restaurants with gastronomical delights.

WORLDWIDE ACCESSIBILITY

Barcelona is a known entrepreneurial and business-friendly city. Thanks to its long business and commercial tradition, Barcelona is today one of the most important cities in Europe for doing business.

International companies are increasingly deciding on Catalonia and Barcelona for their investments in Europe. Modern and easy connections by plane, roads and maritime transportation ensure a broad market reach within 24 hours.

Barcelona's El Prat airport is the largest airport in Spain in terms of passenger numbers and one of the biggest in the whole of Europe

It is also an important hub for scheduled airlines with direct connections to the United States, Canada, South America, the Middle East, Asia and Africa

Easy Access to the City

Josep Tarradellas Barcelona-El Prat airport is very well connected to the city centre of Barcelona by any means of transport. Barcelona airport code is BCN. Located only a dozen kilometres from the city, most "airport to city" transfers take about 40 minutes, including waiting time. This makes it one of the most convenient airports in the country. Note, however, that there are two terminals, T1 and T2, and that the departure points - for the same means of transport - are not the same from one terminal to another. there are two Aerobus A1 and A2. The first one at the start of Terminal 1 and the second one at the start of Terminal 2.
